City Council Candidate Survey

Ethics San Mateo, a California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation, is conducting a survey of all candidates for City Council.

We are conducting this survey with the express purpose of informing the residents and voters of the City of San Mateo about the commitment of individual candidates for City Council to ensuring our city is served according to the highest level of ethical standards and behavior. We will be rating each responding candidate in the area of support for enforceable rules and standards of ethical conduct in San Mateo city government. The results will be published.

Please return the completed survey no later than September 1, 2024, including your name, signature and date to:
